The Lamoille Family Center organizes two projects every year to make the holidays a bit brighter for area families: the "Holiday Project" and the "Adopt a Family Project" to learn more - CLICK HERE

The Tree of Lights on the Stowe Village Green - This annual fundraiser is a time to give to our local hospices during Stowe's Festival of Lights season, to purchase a virtual lightbulb for $1 a bulb to honor and remember loved ones and give thanks for blessings. Each week, names and blessings will be published in the Stowe Reporter as requested. All proceeds collected from December 5th - January 3rd are divided equally between Lamoille Hospice and Central Vermont Hospice, and is sponsored by St. John's in the Mountains Episcopal Church Outreach Committee. Checks made out to the Tree of Lights can be mailed to Tree of Lights co General Delivery, Stowe, VT 05672

1st Annual Stowe Community of Lights - Inspiring Hope Through Light: We welcome everyone throughout the town to bring light to our community for the holiday season. Light up your house or your business for the holiday season like you never have before!
